Dear Sirs

Your letter of 28th was duly rec'd and explained the singular incident of Envelopes marked 'Heath' although I wonder you did not write 'Heaton' at once. Collins says you are right as to a bid on a lot applying to each coin but I will keep the 9 & 11 cents both and refund for stamps sent and coin unpaid. I have also decided instead of sending any further bids, to take of the lot sent me the following pieces.

Dear Sir

Returning from a trip yesterday I found your P. C. of 5th in awaiting mail. I overlooked the 55 C. mint dollar in writing. Will send one, if you say so, not quite as good as the one I bought in exchange for the S Mint 61 Half Dol which you have charged to me at $2.25

After seeing you last I went to N. Y. for three or four days and came back without stopping in Phila. My principal 'pick up' there was a 58 silver dol. (somewhat circulated and with a very small plug) for $14. which I got of an old man I chanced to meet. Low said it was a great bargain.

I got, by the way, from him a 61 S. mint Half Dol. unc. with 5 different sigs from that bought of you.

Yours truly
F. G. Heaton

P. S. I have the 57 S. mint Half Dol you offer, although the condition of your piece would improve it, but I would not give over $1. for yours.

Yours of 9th inst was duly rec'd enclosing the 89 S. mint ½ Dol. which you can charge to my account. I rec'd Parmelee Catalogue from Proskey and as he charges no Commis. and has been exact regarding bids previously sent him, I expect to send him what bids I may decide upon if I do not attend.

I shall pay for the 94 dol and $3.25 for the two ½ dols bought, by or before the 21st

Upon returning from Lundy I found your P. C. acknowledging my check and offering some Mint Mark Haly Dollars. I have them however in unc. condition and bought for about half the price fortunately. You once mentioned having a line of Mint Mark dollars. If you still have them I should like a list of dates and prices for each piece, and condition if I do not spend much at the P. sale, I may be interested.

Dear Sirs

Your interesting Cat. for sale of May 3 & 4th was duly received and I send bids for the coins that most attract me — quite few as my wants are limited to U.S. and my collection is far advanced in varieties and condition. Nos 327 and 328 are of course Trade Dollars, though you do not so mention. If Standard it would surprise me as there is no report of such coinage and I should like to know. My bid on 359 is conditional upon its being not the usual smaller O. of 1892 O mint but an O hardly larger than a period.

Your postal card has lately been forwarded to me. I was beginning to wonder if your intended sale had not come off.

I do not care for a Plate catalogue but if the usual one comes in time to me (to Hotel Royal) I may find something to send bids for.

I am busy here painting portraits and shall remain until early in April. Except some lots of Half Dimes I have found but few coins here.

Dear Sirs

Yours of 14th duly rec'd. If a customer makes a mistake in a bid, whether of small or large amount, it seems to me that it should be considered as an error and excused, otherwise customers will not be inclined to run any risks. But too much time, stationery and ink is being wasted on this mint mark dollar and if you will state the exact amount of your "serious loss" ($1.40 I suppose, less face value) you can keep the piece and I will send a money order and be very shy in future.

Yours truly

J.G. Heaton

after my putting a Denver collection into your hands and I ~~have~~ got so much profit as you ~~have~~ by from mint mark developement, that this exaction began on an error seems very inconsiderate and small.

Dear Sirs

Yours of 21st to sight. I supposed you had decided from the interval since preceding, to overlook my error in writing the bid on the 96 S dollar. As you have not, all you have to do, as already requested, is to inform me of the amount of your "serious loss" on the bid, less the face value of the piece and I will send a money order for the amount or if you have, as appears, returned the coin to Mr Elwell, I will send the difference to him and the commission last to you.

As to the 92 O mint Half Dol. you misquote me in "size of a pinhead." I wrote size of a "period" which is a well defined size on a coin; at least, the O is no larger than the largest period on a coin while a pinhead may be as large as the largest O one can find.

Mr Randall sold me in 92 the piece I have with an O the size of a period as the only one he had ever seen and very rare. I have never seen a similar one but thought Mr Elwell might have chanced upon one and wished to secure it also knowing how exceptional it was but I made my bid conditional upon its being the "size of a period" and so am not obligated as to the usual O of that date.

I was not "reluctant" to write to Mr Elwell but a trip out of town and supposition that you would overlook a mistake from one you had benefitted by considerably delayed me until I could hear from you. I shall write him by this mail giving in substance what this letter contains.

Yours truly
